

PRESS RELEASE — Sept. 22, 2016
The Colony Public Library: 972-625-1900

Twilight at Bridges Cemetery set for Oct. 1

THE COLONY, Texas — The Colony Public Library Local History Committee is will host a Twilight event at Bridges Cemetery from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 1, weather permitting.

Don't miss the opportunity to explore Bridges Cemetery at sunset! Members of the Local History Committee will be on hand to talk about the cemetery's history and discuss its preservation and restoration plans, as well as answer questions about the history of the City of The Colony. This event is free to the public and will include fall refreshments. Copies of the committee's book, Bridges to the Future, will be available for sale for $10. Don't forget to bring your flashlight!

Bridges Cemetery is located at the corner of Morning Star and Chesapeake drives in The Colony. For more information, visit thecolonypl.org or email Megan Charters, Technical Services Librarian, at mcharters@thecolonypl.org.

###